HISTORY

The Silo Restaurant and Country Store for all seasons, was constructed and designed by Harry Troelstra in 1982. Two old 19th century barns were disassembled to create this unique structure. The actual "Silo" was transported from its original site in Saratoga County.

The Silo is often referred to by our customers as New York's finest Restaurant and Country Store.

The Troelstra Family and our Staff at The Silo would like to thank you for visiting us today!
